33. O Allah, send prayers and peace upon him, and upon his Family, his Companions, his children, his wives, his descendants, the people of his household, his progeny, his clan, his in-laws, his relatives by marriage, his beloved ones, his followers, his adherents, and his helpers, the custodians of his secrets, the repositories of his lights, the treasures of realities, the guides of creation, and the stars of guidance for those who follow their example. Grant them abundant, perpetual and everlasting peace. Be pleased with all the Companions with an everlasting good pleasure, equal in number to Your creation, the weight of Your Throne, the pleasure of Your Self, and the ink of Your words, whenever one who remembers remembers You and whenever one who is heedless neglects Your remembrance. Send a prayer that is pleasing to You, fulfils his due, and brings us righteousness. Grant him the Wasilah, the Fadilah, the lofty and exalted rank, the Praiseworthy Station, the unfurled banner, and the Basin to which people come. O my Lord, send prayers upon all his brethren among the Prophets, the Messengers, the saints, the righteous, the martyrs, the truthful, and Your Angels brought near, and upon our master Shaykh Muhyuddin Abu Muhammad Abd al-Qadir al-Makin al-Amin, may the prayers of Allah be upon them all.

34. O Allah, send prayers and peace upon our master Muhammad and upon the Family of our master Muhammad, whose light preceded creation and whose manifestation is a mercy to all the worlds, as numerous as all that has passed of Your creation and all that remains, and all who are fortunate among them and all who are otherwise. A prayer that encompasses all number and encompasses every limit, a prayer with no limit, no end, no appointed term and no cessation: Your prayer which You bestowed upon him, a prayer presented to him, accepted by him, and beloved to him, an everlasting prayer by virtue of Your everlastingness, enduring by virtue of Your eternity, with no end short of Your knowledge. A prayer that pleases You, pleases him, and through which You are pleased with us, a prayer that fills the earth and the heavens, a prayer by which You answer our supplications, purify our souls, give life to our hearts, untie our knots, relieve all distress, and through which Your subtle grace flows in my affairs and the affairs of the Muslims. And bless us continually, grant us well-being, guide us, strengthen us, and make us secure, and ease our affairs with comfort for our hearts and our bodies, and grant us safety and well-being in our religion, our worldly life, and our Hereafter. And cause us to die upon the Book and the Sunnah, and gather us with him in Paradise without first undergoing any punishment, while You are pleased with us and not displeased, and do not let Your decree overtake us unexpectedly, and grant us from Yourself a good ending with well-being and without trial, all of us.
