1. I begin this composition in the name of the Most Exalted Essence, seeking the abundant outpouring of blessings through what He has bestowed and graciously conferred. I follow this with praise whose streams are sweet and pleasant to drink, mounting the steeds of beautiful gratitude. And I send prayers and peace upon the Light described by precedence and primacy.

2. Who passed through noble countenances and radiant brows. I beseech Allah Most High for a special pleasure bestowed upon the pure Prophetic Household, and extended to all the Companions, the followers, and those who are devoted to him. I implore Him for guidance to tread the clear and manifest paths, and for protection from straying into the ways and footsteps of error.

3. And I unfold from the account of the noble Prophetic birth splendid and exquisite robes, stringing from the noble lineage a necklace whose ornaments adorn the ears. I seek aid through the might of Allah Most High and His mighty power, for there is no might and no power except through Allah.

عَطِّرِ اللَّهُمَّ قَبْرَهُ الْكَرِيمَ بِعَرْفٍ شَذِيٍّ مِنْ صَلَاةٍ وَتَسْلِيمٍ ❁ اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ وَسَلِّمْ وَبَارِكْ عَلَيْهِ ❁

4. O Allah, perfume his noble grave with a fragrant scent of prayers and peace.
O Allah, send prayers and peace upon him, and bless him.

وَبَعْدُ فَأَقُولُ: هُوَ سَيِّدُنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَبْدِ الْمُطَّلِبِ وَاسْمُهُ شَيْبَةُ الْحَمْدِ حُمِدَتْ خِصَالُهُ السَّنِيَّةْ ❁ ابْنِ هَاشِمٍ وَاسْمُهُ عَمْرُو ابْنِ عَبْدِ مَنَافٍ وَاسْمُهُ الْمُغِيرَةُ الَّذِي يَنْتَمِي الِارْتِقَاءُ لِعُلْيَاهْ ❁

5. Thereafter, I say: He is our master Muhammad, son of Abdullah, son of Abd al-Muttalib, whose name was Shaybat al-Hamd and whose noble qualities were praised, son of Hashim, whose name was Amr, son of Abd Manaf, whose name was al-Mughirah, to whose lofty rank all heights aspire.

6. He is the son of Qusayy, whose name was Mujammi, and he was called Qusayy because of his being far away in the distant lands of Quda'ah, until Allah Most High returned him to the Sacred Sanctuary, where he protected its precincts. He is the son of Kilab, whose name was Hakim, son of Murrah, son of Ka'b, son of Lu'ayy, son of Ghalib, son of Fihr, whose name was Quraysh, to whom the Qurashite clans trace their lineage.

7. Those above him are of Kinanah, according to the view favoured and accepted by many. He is the son of Malik, son of al-Nadr, son of Kinanah, son of Khuzaymah, son of Mudrikah, son of Ilyas, who was the first to offer sacrificial camels in the Sacred Precinct. From his loins, the Prophet, may Allah Most High send prayers and peace upon him, was heard remembering Allah Most High and answering His call. He is the son of Mudar, son of Nizar, son of Ma'add, son of Adnan. This is a strand whose precious pearls were threaded by the fingers of the exalted Sunnah.

وَرَفْعُهُ إِلَى الْخَلِيلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ أَمْسَكَ عَنْهُ الشَّارِعُ وَأَبَاهْ ❁ وَعَدْنَانُ بِلَا رَيْبٍ عِنْدَ ذَوِي الْعُلُومِ النَّسَبِيَّةْ ❁ إِلَى الذَّبِيحِ إِسْمَاعِيلَ نِسْبَتُهُ وَمُنْتَمَاهُ وَمُنْتَهَاهْ ❁ فَأَعْظِمْ بِهِ مِنْ عِقْدٍ تَأَلَّقَتْ كَوَاكِبُهُ الدُّرِّيَّةْ ❁ وَكَيْفَ لَا وَالسَّيِّدُ الْأَكْرَمُ صَلَّى اللَّهُ تَعَالَى عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاسِطَتُهُ الْمُنْتَقَاةْ ❁

8. As for tracing the lineage back to the Friend of Allah, Ibrahim, peace be upon him, the Lawgiver refrained from doing so and declined it. Yet there is no doubt among the scholars of genealogy that Adnan's lineage, ancestry, and ultimate descent reach back to Ismail, the one offered for sacrifice. How magnificent is this necklace, whose radiant stars shine brilliantly. And how could it be otherwise, when the most noble master, may Allah Most High send prayers and peace upon him, is its chosen central jewel?

How splendid is this necklace of nobility and honour, in which you are the peerless and flawless pearl. They abstained from unlawful unions, and no shame from them touched his lineage, from Adam down to his father and mother. They were noble men through whose radiant countenances the light of prophethood passed, and its full moon shone forth upon the brow of his grandfather Abd al-Muttalib and his son Abdullah.

Often, he would begin his day by taking nourishment from the water of Zamzam, and it would satisfy his hunger and quench his thirst.

67. The monk recognised him when the tree's ample shade inclined towards him and sheltered him, and said, "None has ever rested beneath this tree except a Prophet of pure qualities and a Messenger whom Allah Most High has specially endowed and favoured with virtues." Then he asked Maysarah, "Is there redness in his eyes?" seeking to confirm the hidden sign. Maysarah replied, "Yes," and thus what he had suspected and sought to confirm about him was established in his mind.

This occurred on a Monday, when seventeen nights had passed of the month of the Night of Decree. There are also other opinions that it occurred after seven nights had passed,

119. And conceal for each of us his faults, his weakness, his inability, and his inarticulateness, and make easy for us those righteous deeds whose heights are difficult to attain. O Allah, You have appointed for every seeker a station and distinction, and for everyone who hopes in You that which he hopes for and seeks from You. And we have asked You, hoping for Your divine gifts, so fulfil for us what we have hoped for from You, and encompass this gathering of ours with the treasures of Your sublime gifts.

بِرَحْمَةٍ وَمَغْفِرَةٍ وَتُدِيمَ عَمَّنْ سِوَاكَ غِنَاهْ ۞ اللَّهُمَّ آمِنِ الرَّوْعَاتِ وَأَصْلِحِ الرُّعَاةَ وَالرَّعِيَّةْ ۞ وَأَعْظِمِ الْأَجْرَ لِمَنْ جَعَلَ هَذَا الْخَيْرَ فِي هَذَا الْيَوْمِ وَأَجْرَاهْ ۞ اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْ هَذِهِ الْبَلْدَةَ وَسَائِرَ بِلَادِ الْإِسْلَامِ آمِنَةً رَخِيَّةْ ۞ وَاسْقِنَا غَيْثًا يَعُمُّ انْسِيَابُ سَيْبِهِ السَّبْسَبَ وَرُبَاهْ ۞

Bi-raḥmatin wa-maghfiratin wa-tudīma ʿamman siwāka ghināh, Allāhumma āmini r-rawʿāti wa-aṣliḥi r-ruʿāta wa-r-raʿiyyah, wa-aʿẓimi l-ajra li-man jaʿala hādhā l-khayra fī hādhā l-yawmi wa-ajrāh, Allāhumma jʿal hādhihi l-baldata wa-sā'ira bilādi l-Islāmi āminatan rakhiyyah, wa-sqinā ghaythan yaʿummu nsiyābu saybihi s-sabsaba wa-rubāh.

120. With mercy and forgiveness, and grant us lasting independence from all besides You. O Allah, grant safety from all fears, and set right the leaders and the people. And magnify the reward of the one who caused this good to take place on this day and brought it about. O Allah, make this land and all the lands of Islam secure and prosperous, and grant us abundant rain whose flowing bounty spreads across the plains and their hills.

Wa-ghfir li-nāsikhi hādhihi l-burūdi l-muḥabbarati l-mawlidiyyah, Jaʿfari man ilā Barzanja nisbatuhu wa-muntamāh, wa-ḥaqqiq lahu l-fawza bi-qurbika wa-r-rajā'a wa-l-umniyyah, wa-jʿal maʿa l-muqarrabīna maqīlahu wa-suknāh, wa-stur lahu ʿaybahu waʿajzahu wa-ḥaṣrahu waʿiyyah.

121. And forgive the author of this beautifully adorned Mawlid, Ja'far, whose origin and affiliation are traced to Barzanj. Grant him the triumph of nearness to You and the fulfilment of his hopes and aspirations. Make his resting place and abode among those brought near to You. Conceal his faults, his weakness, his limitations, and his inability to express himself.

122. And forgive its writer, its reader, and whoever lends his ear to it and listens attentively. O Allah, send prayers and peace, and bestow blessings, upon the first to receive the manifestation from the universal reality, and upon his Family, his Companions, and all who supported him and showed him loyalty, for as long as ears are adorned with jewelled earrings fashioned from his pearl-like description, and the foremost places of noble gatherings are adorned with necklaces of his beautiful qualities.

123. And the finest prayers and most complete peace be upon our master and patron Muhammad, the Seal of the Prophets and Messengers, and upon all his Family and Companions. “Glory be to your Lord, the Lord of Might, above what they ascribe to Him. And peace be upon the Messengers. And all praise belongs to Allah, Lord of the worlds.” (37:180–182)
