1. O Allah, send prayers and peace upon the ladder of the divine secrets concealed within the Qur'anic letters, the locus of descent of the divine subtleties that descend within the exalted presence, are unfolded within the lights through the light, and manifest themselves in the core of the inner realities of the Qur'anic letters of attributes. He is the great Prophet, the centre of the realities of the Prophets and Messengers, the effuser of lights to their presences from his own special, final presence. He is the drinker of the sealed nectar from the innermost depth of majesty, the one who conveys the divine particularities to the people of election. He is the centre of the circle of the Prophets and the awliya, the one who brings down light, the one who witnesses through the essence and unveils through the attributes, the knower of the manifestation of the essence in the names and attributes, and the knower of the manifestation of the essential Qur'an within the differentiating Furqan of attributes. From here appeared the two mutually opposed unities, encompassing both extremes.
