O Allah, send prayers upon the one through whom the hidden mysteries were unveiled, and from whom the lights burst forth, and in whom the deepest realities ascended, and the one through whom the knowledge of Adam descended, leaving all creation unable to comprehend him, and before him every intellect was diminished, so that none of us, whether earlier or later, has comprehended him. The gardens of the celestial dominion (malakut) flourish with the blossoms of his beauty, and the reservoirs of the realm of omnipotence (jabarut) overflow through the outpouring of his lights, and there is nothing except that it is bound to him, for were it not for the intermediary, that which is connected would vanish, as it has been said. Send upon him a prayer befitting Your majesty, from You unto him, as is worthy of his exalted station.
O Allah, indeed he is Your all-encompassing secret, the one who guides unto You, and Your supreme veil, standing before You in Your presence. O Allah, unite me to his lineage, and realise me through his rank, and grant me knowledge of him, a knowledge through which I may be delivered from the springs of ignorance, and drink from the fountains of divine grace, and carry me along his path into Your divine presence, borne and surrounded by Your support, and cast me against falsehood that I may crush it, and immerse me in the oceans of absolute oneness, and draw me forth from the mires of tawhid, and drown me in the very heart of the ocean of unity, until I neither see, nor hear, nor perceive, nor sense anything except through it, and make the supreme veil the life of my spirit, and make his spirit the secret of my reality, and make his reality the unifier of all my worlds through the realisation of the first truth. O First! O Last! O Manifest! O Hidden! Hear my supplication just as You heard the supplication of Your slave Zakariyya, and grant me victory through You and for You, and strengthen me through You and for You, and unite me with You, and place a barrier between me and everything besides You.

Allah, Allah, Allah!

"Indeed, He Who has made the Qur'an obligatory upon you will surely return you to a place of return." (28:85)

"Our Lord, grant us mercy from Yourself and direct us to what is right in our affair." (18:10)

"Indeed, Allah and His Angels send prayers upon the Prophet. O you who believe, send prayers upon him and greet him with peace." (33:56)
