4. “Had We sent this Qur’an down upon a mountain, you would have seen it humbled, splitting apart in awe of Allah. We set forth these examples for people so that they may reflect. He is Allah, besides Whom there is no god, the Knower of all that is unseen and all that is seen. He is the Most Compassionate, the Most Merciful. He is Allah, besides Whom there is no god, the Sovereign, the Most Holy, the Source of Peace, the Giver of Security, the Guardian over all, the Almighty, the Compeller, the Supremely Great. Glory be to Allah, far above whatever they associate with Him. He is Allah, the Creator, the Originator, the Fashioner. His are the most beautiful names. Everything in the heavens and the earth glorifies Him. He is the Almighty, the All-Wise.” (59:21–24)

29. May the Fatihah be offered to the souls of the awliya, the martyrs, the righteous, and the rightly guided imams, and to the souls of our parents, our shaykhs, and all those who have rights over us and over them, then to the souls of the deceased believing men and women and Muslim men and women, that Allah may forgive them, have mercy upon them, raise their ranks in Paradise, and bestow upon us from their secrets, lights, knowledge, and blessings in religion, this world, and the Hereafter. Al-Fatihah.

30. May the Fatihah be offered for acceptance, the complete fulfilment of every need and hope, and the rectification of all our affairs, outwardly and inwardly, in religion, this world, and the Hereafter, repelling every evil and bringing every good to us, our parents, our children, our loved ones, and our shaykhs in religion, together with Divine gentleness and well-being, and with the intention that Allah illuminate our hearts and bodies, grant us guidance, piety, chastity, self-sufficiency, and death upon the religion of Islam and faith, without tribulation or trial, by the rank of the master of the descendants of Adnan, and for every righteous intention, and may it be offered to the presence of the Prophet Muhammad, may Allah send prayers and peace upon him and his family. Al-Fatihah.
