2. “In the name of Allah, the Most Compassionate, the Most Merciful.
All praise belongs to Allah, Lord of all worlds, the Most Compassionate, the Most Merciful, Master of the Day of Judgement. You alone we worship, and You alone we ask for help. Guide us along the straight path, the path of those You have favoured, those who have neither incurred Your anger nor gone astray.” (1:1–7)

4. “The Messenger believes in what has been sent down to him from his Lord, and so do the believers. Each believes in Allah, His Angels, His books and His Messengers. ‘We make no distinction between any of His Messengers.’ They say, ‘We hear and obey. Grant us Your forgiveness, our Lord. To You is our return.’ Allah places no burden upon a soul beyond its capacity. Whatever good it earns is to its credit, and whatever evil

29. May the Fatihah be offered to the soul of the author of this Ratib, the Pole of Guidance, the Succour of the slaves and the lands, our master Imam Habib Abdullah ibn Alawi al-Haddad, and to his ancestors and descendants, that Allah may raise their ranks in Paradise and benefit us through them, their secrets, lights, knowledge, blessings, spiritual breezes, and spiritual support in religion, this world, and the Hereafter. Al-Fatihah. May Allah reward you.
