We ask You, by You, for You, to show us the face of our Prophet, may prayers and peace be upon him, and to erase from us the traces of our sins through the witnessing of Your beauty, and to make us absent from ourselves in the oceans of Your lights, protected from worldly distractions, turning to You, absent from ourselves through You. O He, O Allah, O He, O Allah, O He, O Allah, there is no deity but You. Give us to drink from the cup of Your love, and immerse us in the oceans of Your oneness until we roam freely in the vast expanse of Your presence, and cut off from us the illusions of created existence by Your grace and mercy. Illuminate us with the light of obedience to You, guide us and do not lead us astray, and grant us insight into our own faults instead of the faults of others, by the sanctity of our Prophet and master Muhammad, may prayers and peace be upon him, and upon his Family and Companions, the lamps of existence and the people of witnessing. O Most Merciful of the merciful, we ask You to join us with them and grant us their love. O Allah, O Ever-Living, O Sustainer, O Possessor of Majesty and Honour: “Our Lord, accept this from us. You are indeed the All-Hearing, the All-Knowing.” (2:127) “And turn towards us in mercy. You are indeed the Accepter of Repentance, the Most Merciful.” (2:128) Grant us beneficial knowledge, indeed, You have power over all things. O Lord of the worlds, O Most Compassionate, O Most Merciful, we ask You to grant us the vision of the face of our Prophet in our sleep and in our wakefulness, and to send prayers and peace upon him continuously until the Day of Judgement, and to send prayers upon the best of us and be for us.

26. O Allah, we ask You, by the rank of Your Prophet, our master Muhammad, may prayers and peace be upon him, for forgiveness, Your pleasure, and complete acceptance. Do not leave us in this to ourselves even for the blink of an eye, O best of responders, for one seeking Your protection has come. O my Master, by the rank of Your Prophet Muhammad, may Allah send prayers and peace upon him, for indeed the forgiveness of the sins of all creation, first and last, righteous and sinful, is like a drop in the vast ocean of Your generosity that has no shore. For You have said, and Your word is the true and clear word: “We sent you only as a mercy to all the worlds.” (21:107) Send prayers and peace upon him and upon his Family and Companions all together. “My Lord, my bones have grown weak and my head is ablaze with grey hair. Yet never, my Lord, have I been disappointed in calling upon You.” (19:4) My Lord, “Affliction has touched me, and You are the Most Merciful of those who show mercy.” (21:83) “My Lord, I am in need of whatever good You send me.” (28:24) O Helper of the weak, O Great Hope, O Rescuer of the drowning, O Rescuer of the perishing, O Excellent Protector, O Security of the fearful, there is no deity except Allah, the Magnificent, the Most Merciful. There is no deity except Allah, Lord of the mighty Throne. There is no deity except Allah, Lord of the seven heavens and Lord of the noble Throne.

Glory be to You. I have indeed been among the wrongdoers.” (21:87), “You are my Protector in this world and the Hereafter. Let me die a Muslim and join me with the righteous.” (12:101), “Make my descendants righteous for me. I turn to You in repentance, and I am among those who submit to You.” (46:15) The prayers of Allah, His Angels, His Prophets, His Messengers, and all of His creation be upon our master, our Prophet, and our patron Muhammad, and upon the Family of our master Muhammad. And upon him and upon them be peace, and the mercy of Allah, and His blessings.

44. O Allah, admit us with him through his intercession, his guarantee, and his watchful care, together with his Family and his Companions, into Your abode, the Abode of Peace, “in a place of honour before an All-Powerful Sovereign” (54:55), O Possessor of Majesty and Honour. Honour us with the vision of him through the subtle grace of his nearness, O Generous, O Merciful. Honour us with beholding the beauty of the radiant lights of Your magnificent countenance, and preserve us through his honour with ennoblement, veneration, and exaltation. And honour us with his hospitality, “as hospitality from One Who is All-Forgiving, Most Merciful” (41:32), in the gardens of divine pleasure: “I bestow My pleasure upon you and will never be displeased with you. And I give you the keys of the unseen to the treasures of the hidden secret within the concealed gardens of mystical knowledge of the qualitative attributes, through the lights of the essence,” “upon couches, gazing” (83:23), “and they shall have whatever they ask for” (36:57), “‘Peace’ will be the word of a Merciful Lord.” (36:58), through the gentle turning of Muhammadan compassion from the source of his watchful care, “as a bounty from your Lord. That is the great triumph.” (44:57), within the beauty of the palaces of the treasures of inner secrets of the verse, “No soul knows what delight has been kept hidden for them as a reward for their deeds.” (32:17), upon the bridal throne of the beauty of the seals of, “Their prayer there will be, ‘Glory be to You, O Allah,’ and their greeting will be, ‘Peace.’ Their prayer will close with, ‘All praise belongs to Allah, Lord of all worlds.’” (10:10)
